RISE: RED POWER

STANDING ROCK PART 2

In the RISE series, host Sarain Carson-Fox travels to Indigenous communities across the Americas to meet people protecting their homelands and rising up against colonization. RISE: Red Power is part two of a two-part episode documenting the fight against construction of the Dakota Access Pipeline on the Lakota-Sioux reservation of Standing Rock in North Dakota. We see the conclusion of the famous #NODAPL protest from the viewpoint of the Indigenous people occupying the camps. Although there are scenes of violence and coarse language, as well as mature themes, they are necessary in showing the full picture of what these protesters experienced while fighting to protect their ancestral lands.
