FRENCH-LANGUAGE ANTI-RACISM LIVESTREAM

presented by REEL CANADA

ATTENTION TEACHERS!

Join us for a French-language livestream showcasing a variety of Canadian short films on the theme of anti-racism, and featuring insightful conversations with exciting special guests, and questions from students across the country.

Our short film programme will focus on Indigenous perspectives, Black perspectives, and xenophobia. Students will have the opportunity to engage through our online platform in polls, Q&A, chat, discussion boards, etc.

Not a French teacher? See the next page for other options.

The discussion will be live on Thursday, December 2 at 1:40 EST

- See below for the time in your region, but if that time doesn't work, you can still watch an interactive recording afterwards.
- Includes lesson plans, sensitivity support resources, extension activities, and of course, access to the films.
- Suitable for in-class or remote learning, for Grades 9 and above.
- Suitable for native French speakers and FSL students who can follow a French-language conversation. We'll also provide an English subtitled version of the livestream (and the films) after the fact for FSL beginners and Anglophones.

Entirely free of charge!

THE FILMS

We are presenting five short films in the programme, totaling 50 minutes. For descriptions and content advisories, go to reelcanada.ca/french-livestream-films

HOW IT WORKS

- 1. Register: Fill out our online registration form to book your spot
- 2. Before the Livestream: Watch the films with your students via streaming link or DVD provided by REEL CANADA
- 3. Livestream: Log in to watch the online webcast LIVE, or watch a recording of it later
- 4. Participate: From their own devices, students can engage in interactive activities (e.g., polling questions, instant reactions, discussion threads, and more!)

NOT A FRENCH TEACHER?

This livestream will be fully in French, but an English-subtitled version of the films and recorded discussion will be available after the live event. Our next two anti-racism livestreams will be presented in English. Sign up for our e-newsletter at reelcanada.ca to be notified when registrations open.

ABOUT REEL CANADA

REEL CANADA is a charitable organization that celebrates Canada through film. Over the past 17 years, our travelling film festival has held over 6,000 screenings and served over a million students. We promote the power and diversity of Canadian film and encourage this on-going conversation about place, identity, inclusivity, and what it means to be Canadian.
